Islamic Art Exhibit Policy:

1. Neither Islamic Art Exhibit (IAE) nor the venue will be held liable for loss, theft, or damage to the artwork from any cause.
2. Artwork will not be insured by IAE. It is artists' responsibility to insure their artwork; IAE is responsible for handling artwork to and from venues but limited to minor repairs or damage.
3. The submitted Artwork will be displayed in at least one venue. The display of artwork at the rest of the venues will depend on the available space and curators' discretion.
4. Artwork will remain the property of the artist. It will be returned on the date announced after the completion of all the exhibitions.
5. Artist will pick up the artwork within a month of the announced Return Date. Any artwork left after the pick up deadline date will become the property of IAE.
6. IAE will have the right to photograph and catalog the Art Work for publicity purposes.
7. Entry is up to 2 pieces of artwork per artist. Maximum size 3'x3' and weight is 5lbs or less.
8. Label the back of each piece of artwork with the name and phone number of the artist, and the title of the artwork.
9. If any artwork gets sold, the artist will get 70% and IAE will get 30% of the sale price.
10. Submission Fee: $0.
11. Submission of the work constitutes an agreement to the terms listed on the eligibility rules at www.islamicartexhibit.com.
